The parties agree to conduct a true-up (“True-Up”) on a regular basis to reconcile and adjust any discrepancies. The True-Up will normally occur on the 21st day of every month, excluding weekends and federal holidays. If the 21st falls on a weekend or holiday, the True-Up will occur on the next business day, subject to the parties’ best efforts.

“Users” means individuals who are authorized by Customer to use the Customer Login and access the Service. Users may include employees, consultants, contractors and Customer Agents of Customer or its Affiliates.

2. Service.

2.1 Trial. If the parties agree in the Agreement that Customer will participate in a Trial, Vendor agrees to make available the Services to Customer for the Trial Term and grants Customer the right to test, access and use the Services and to report to Vendor the usefulness and functionality of the Services (the “Trial”). This Section 2.1 only applies if the Customer elects to participate in the Trial. Otherwise, this Section 2.1 is void and of no legal effect.

2.2 Provision of Service. The Vendor shall make the Service available to the Customer and its Users pursuant to the Agreement. The customer acknowledges and agrees that a binding agreement for the provision of goods or services shall only be created upon the execution of a written quote (or email) and acceptance (or reply) thereof by the customer. The customer shall sign the quote to indicate their acceptance (or reply to the email with a clear indication of acceptance), and such signature (or reply) shall be deemed to be an electronic signature for the purposes of applicable laws. Upon acceptance of the offer, the Customer will be granted a username, password, and authentication material to access the Services (“Customer Portal Login”). The Customer agrees that its purchase of a subscription is neither contingent upon the delivery of any future functionality or features nor dependent upon any oral or written public comments made by the Vendor with respect to future functionality or features.

2.3 SMART-Monitor Agent Software. The Customer shall download the SMART-Monitor Agent Software in accordance with the Vendor's instructions prior to Services being provided to the Customer. The SMART-Monitor Agent Software is used to facilitate the transmission of Sensor Data as part of providing the Services and to improve performance. SMART-Monitor Agent Software (including any third-party support software) is owned by the Vendor or applicable third-party licensors and suppliers and is subject to the terms of the EULA. The Vendor will not supply any Services to the Customer unless it accepts the EULA's Terms of Service and/or ensures that its Customer Client accepts the EULA. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Customer can demonstrate the Customer will be using separate compatible agent software for the purposes of transmitting the Sensor Data to the Services ("Customer Agent Software"), no EULA will be required by Vendor. The determination as to whether the Customer Agent Software is compatible with the Services shall be in the sole discretion of the Vendor, and such use of the Customer Agent Software is conditional upon the payment of an additional fee as set out in any additional Quote.

2.4 SMART-Monitor Services. The Vendor offers Services through Vendor's SMART-Monitor Agent Software wherein the Vendor monitors devices on the Customer's network, alerts the Customer of threats, and takes limited action to contain the threat, based on Customer approval. Threats may include but are not limited to, ransomware, malware, phishing, network communications, potentially unwanted programs, and policy violations. The Customer agrees to provide the Vendor with the necessary contact information and reasonable assistance required to set up and deliver SMART-Monitor Services to Customer. The Vendor shall assess threats on Customer systems and may take immediate action to isolate and/or shut down a device on the Customer network that has been affected by the threat(s) ("Targeted Device"). The Customer is responsible for any remedial actions to remove the threat from the affected Device(s).

2.5 SMART-Monitor Acknowledgements. The parties acknowledge that: (1) once a Targeted Device has been isolated and/or shutdown, Vendor will no longer have access to or control of the Targeted Device; (2) if Customer provides written instruction to Vendor to refrain from isolating and/or shutting down any specific devices, files, data or otherwise, Vendor shall not be liable for any damages arising pursuant to such instructions from Customer.

2.6 Customer Acknowledgments. Customer acknowledges and agrees that: (1) Vendor shall not be liable for any costs, fees, damages, lost profits, or otherwise arising pursuant to the re-integration of a Targeted Device on Customer's network; (2) while Vendor shall use commercially reasonable efforts to detect and when previously authorized by the Customer, remove threats on Customer's network, there is no foolproof method to detect or remove threats, and Vendor shall not be liable for any costs, fees, damages, lost profits, or otherwise arising from non-detection, action, inaction, or omissions, regarding any threat on Customer's network.

2.7 Third-Party Services. The Vendor may, from time to time, offer for purchase certain Third-Party Services, either individually or bundled with other service offerings. The Vendor does not claim any ownership in or to the Third-Party Services. The Third-Party Services are not created or supplied by the Vendor, and the Vendor offers no warranty and accepts no liability whatsoever for your purchase and/or use of any such Third-Party Services. In the event that there are any defects or issues found with such Third-Party Services, Customer's sole recourse shall be with such Third-Party, and CYDEF specifically disclaims any responsibility for warranties, updates, support, maintenance, or refunds associated with such Third-Party Services. All Third-Party Services shall be governed by the terms and conditions set forth by the entity providing the Third-Party Services, which shall be provided to Customer upon request.

3. Use of the Service.

3.1 Vendor Responsibilities. Vendor shall: (i) maintain the integrity of the Service; (ii) provide certain Support Services to Customer's Users (additional support services may be purchased

3.2 Customer Responsibilities. Customer is responsible for all activities that occur in User accounts and for Users’ compliance with these Terms of Service. Customer shall: (i) have sole responsibility for the accuracy, quality, integrity, legality, reliability, and appropriateness of all Customer Data; (ii) use the Service in compliance with the Use Guidelines described in Section 3.3; (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized access to, or use of, the Service, and notify Vendor promptly of any such unauthorized access or use; (iv) accepts and abides by the terms of the EULA; and (v) comply with all Applicable Laws in using the Service.

3.3 Use Guidelines. Customer shall use the Service solely for its internal business purposes, and/or for the purposes of the Trial during the Trial Term (if applicable), as contemplated by these Terms of Service, and ensure its Customer Clients shall not: (i) license, sublicense, sell, resell, rent, lease, transfer, assign, distribute, time share or otherwise commercially exploit or make the Service available to any third party, other than to Users or as otherwise contemplated by these Terms of Service; (ii) send spam or otherwise duplicative or unsolicited messages in violation of Applicable Laws; (iii) send or store infringing, obscene, threatening, libelous, or otherwise unlawful or tortious material, including material that is harmful to children or violates third party intellectual property or privacy rights; (iv) send or store Malicious Code (whether intentional or inadvertent); (v) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of the Service or the data contained therein; or (vi) attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Service or its related systems or networks.

3.4 Publicity. Neither party may issue press releases or otherwise publicize the parties’ relationship without the other party’s prior written consent.

4. Fees & Payment.

4.1 Service Fees. Except during a Trial Period (if applicable), Customer shall pay all fees specified in the Agreement hereunder. Except as otherwise provided, all fees are quoted and payable in US Dollars, except as otherwise specified in Article 11 herein:

- For Monthly subscription agreements, the number of Device licenses purchased can be increased or decreased during the applicable Subscription Agreement Term. Fees will be determined at the True-Up Date and will be charged at the next billing cycle.
- For Annual subscription agreements, the number of Device licenses purchased cannot be decreased during the applicable Subscription Term. Fees for additional licenses, as determined at the monthly True-Up Date, will be charged in full for the remaining months of the Subscription Term. In the case of any renewals, any decrease in the number of devices during the previous term will be considered.
- Fees for the current period are non-cancellable and non-refundable.

4.2 Invoicing & Payment. Fees for the Service will be invoiced in advance. Charges are due net 30 days from the invoice date. Customer is responsible for maintaining complete and accurate billing and contact information.

4.3 Overdue Payments. Any payment not received from Customer by the due date may accrue (except with respect to charges then under reasonable and good faith dispute), at Vendor’s discretion, late charges at the rate of 1.5% of the outstanding balance per month, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is lower, from the date such payment was due until the date paid.

4.4 Suspension of Service. If Customer's account is 60 days or more overdue (90 days from invoice date), in addition to any of its other rights or remedies, Vendor reserves the right to suspend the Service provided to Customer, without liability to Vendor, until such amounts are paid in full. The Customer may be required to pay reinstatement fees.

4.5 Non-payment of Fees. Timely payment of fees owing under this section is a material condition of performance under this agreement. In the event the Customer fails to pay fees following suspension of service the Vendor reserves the right to terminate for cause per section 11.1.

4.6 Taxes. Unless otherwise stated, Vendor's fees do not include any direct or indirect local, provincial, state, federal or foreign taxes, levies, duties or similar governmental assessments of any nature, including value-added, use or withholding taxes (collectively, "Taxes"). Customer is responsible for paying all Taxes associated with its purchases hereunder, excluding taxes based on Vendor's net income or property. If Vendor has the legal obligation to pay or collect Taxes for which Customer is responsible under this section, the appropriate amount shall be invoiced to and paid by Customer, unless Customer provides Vendor with a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate taxing authority.

5. Proprietary Rights.

5.1 Reservation of Rights. Subject to the limited rights expressly granted hereunder, Vendor reserves all right, title, and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to the Services and all technologies related thereto, including any and all algorithms or processes developed by Vendor and all derivatives, modifications, or improvements of or to any of the foregoing made by Vendor, whether or not created or developed in connection with the Services. No rights are granted to Customer hereunder other than as expressly set forth herein.

Service; (ii) frame or mirror any content forming part of the Service, other than for its own internal business purposes; (iii) reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, decode, adapt or otherwise attempt to derive or gain access to the source code of the Services, in whole or in part or (iv) access the Service in order to (A) build a competitive product or service, or (B) copy any ideas, features, functions or graphics of the Service.

5.3 Customer Data. As between Vendor and Customer, Customer exclusively owns all rights, title, and interest in and to all Customer Data. Customer Data is deemed Confidential Information under these Terms of Service. Subject to Section 5.4, Vendor shall not access Customer's User accounts, including Customer Data, except to evaluate system usage, performance, or capacity, respond to service requirements or technical problems, or at Customer's request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Vendor may use Customer Data for purposes other than those described above only with the express written consent of the Customer. Customer represents and warrants having provided the necessary consent or legal right required for the disclosure of any Customer Data to Vendor under this Agreement.

5.4 Usage Data. Vendor may collect certain data and information regarding Customer and/or User's use of the Services, including, but not limited to, data involving workflow, opinions, the classification and characterization of events, programs, or other items ("Usage Data"). Vendor may use and exploit Usage Data for any purpose in connection with operating, improving, and supporting the Services and any machine learning technology that underlies the Services ("Usage Data Purpose"). Notwithstanding any term in the quote to the contrary, Customer hereby consents to the use of such Usage Data for the Usage Data Purpose, and Customer represents and warrants it has obtained the necessary consent and legal right from Users to do the same, and Customer irrevocably assigns all rights, title, and ownership of the Usage Data to the Vendor, and Customer hereby waives any applicable non-assignable rights to such Usage Data to the extent Customer is legally permitted to do so, and Customer represents and warrants it has obtained the necessary consent and legal right from Users to do the same. Vendor represents and warrants that it shall not use the Usage Data for any other purpose other than the Usage Data Purpose.

5.5 Statistical Information. Vendor may anonymously compile statistical information related to the performance of the Services for purposes of improving the Services.

5.6 Suggestions. Vendor shall have a royalty-free, worldwide, transferable, sublicensable, irrevocable, perpetual license to use or incorporate into the Service any suggestions, enhancement requests, recommendations or other feedback provided by Customer or its Users relating to the operation of the Service.

6. Privacy Rights.

6.1 Privacy Obligations. Notwithstanding any provisions, representations and warranties to the contrary, Vendor and Customer acknowledge that there is a possibility that the Customer Data may contain Personal Data, the use of which data is subject to various privacy laws, including all provincial, state, federal and international laws and regulations and provincial, state, federal and national government agency orders and decrees to which Customer may be subject ("Privacy Laws"), as well as certain restrictions imposed on the Personal Data by the data subjects or other third party data providers. Vendor and Customer agree to strictly abide by all such restrictions pertaining to the Personal Data, as they are promulgated and applied, currently and in the future. Vendor and Customer agree to be bound by the terms of Vendor's Privacy Policy, as amended from time to time, such policy being available on Vendor's website or by request. Furthermore, Vendor shall in good faith execute any and all agreements that Customer is required to have Vendor execute in order that Customer may comply with any Privacy Laws. If Vendor or Customer's use (whether directly or indirectly) of the Personal Data is contrary to any Privacy Law, or contrary to any of the restrictions set forth in these Terms of Service, the non-violating party shall have the right to: (a) terminate the service for cause if such breach has not been cured within five (5) days of receipt by the violating party of written notice, and (b) pursue any other legal and equitable remedies.

If the Personal Data relates to natural persons in the European Economic Area in connection with Vendor's provision of the Services, the Parties shall enter into a General Data Protection Regulation Data Processing Addendum, to be attached hereto if applicable, which shall apply to Customer's use of the Service and to Vendor's Processing of such Personal Data in the use of the Service.

7. Confidentiality.

7.6 Remedies. If the Receiving Party discloses or uses (or threatens to disclose or use) any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party in breach of confidentiality protections hereunder, the Disclosing Party shall have the right, in addition to any other remedies available to it, to seek injunctive relief to enjoin such acts, it being specifically acknowledged by the parties that any other available remedies are inadequate.

VENDOR DOES NOT WARRANT THAT ALL ERRORS CAN BE CORRECTED, OR THAT THE OPERATION OF THE SERVICES SHALL BE UNINTERRUPTED OR ERROR FREE. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OF IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OR LIMITATIONS ON HOW LONG AN IMPLIED WARRANTY LASTS, SO SOME OF THE ABOVE LIMITATIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO CUSTOMER.

9. Mutual Indemnification.

9.1 Indemnification by Vendor. Subject to these Terms of Service, Vendor shall defend, indemnify and hold Customer harmless against any loss, damage, or costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with claims, demands, suits, or proceedings ("Claims") made or brought against Customer by a third party alleging that the use of the Service as contemplated hereunder infringes the intellectual property rights of a third party; provided, that Customer (a) promptly gives written notice of the Claim to Vendor; (b) gives Vendor sole control of the defense and settlement of the Claim (provided that Vendor may not settle or defend any Claim unless it unconditionally releases Customer of all liability); and (c) provides to Vendor, at Vendor's cost, all reasonable assistance.

9.2 Indemnification by Customer. Subject to these Terms of Service, Customer shall defend, indemnify and hold Vendor harmless against any loss, damage or costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with Claims made or brought against Vendor by a third party alleging that the Customer Data, or Customer's use of the Service: (i) infringes the intellectual property rights of such third party, or (ii) has harmed such third party because Malicious Code was uploaded or inputted by Users, (iii) electronic data or information was uploaded or inputted by Users without such third party's authorization or permission, or (iv) violates any Applicable Law, or has otherwise harmed a third party; provided, that Vendor (a) promptly gives written notice of the Claim to Customer; (b) gives Customer sole control of the defense and settlement of the Claim (provided that Customer may not settle or defend any Claim unless it unconditionally releases Vendor of all liability); and (c) provides to Customer, at Customer's cost, all reasonable assistance.

10.3 Exclusions. THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SET FORTH IN SECTIONS 10.1 AND 10.2 SHALL NOT APPLY TO DAMAGES ARISING FROM A PARTY'S OBLIGATIONS WITH RESPECT TO (A) INFRINGEMENT OF ANY THIRD PARTY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS; OR (B) ARISING FROM A PARTY'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE, RECKLESSNESS, INTENTIONAL OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, OR VIOLATION OF ANY APPLICABLE LAW.

11.4 Return of Customer Data. Upon request by Customer made within 60 days after the effective date of termination, Vendor will make the Services available to Customer on a limited basis to download a file of Customer Data in comma separated value (.csv) format (or such other format as agreed to). After such 60-day period, Vendor shall have no obligation to maintain or provide any Customer Data and shall thereafter, unless legally prohibited, delete all Customer Data in its systems or otherwise in its possession or under its control.

Neither party may assign any of its rights or obligations hereunder, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other party (not to be unreasonably withheld). Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may assign the order in its entirety (including all Quotes), without consent of the other party, in connection with a merger, acquisition, corporate reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of its assets not involving a direct competitor of the other party.
